

'77 Naval Academy Nukes, Orlando, Florida

Everyone thinks that all everyone does at Nuke School is study but how come all I hear about is Jai alai, dog races, Daytona Beach, Disney World, and Rosie O'Grady's Good Time Emporium.

French Caldwell and his wife Patty were expecting in the first week of May and intended to name him Nathaniel Lee (?).

Anyway, here are a couple of pictures of our mad scientists at the Naval Nuclear Power School and not one of them seems to be too badly worn out by all the scholastics. Kindly check with the microscope and see how many you can recognize, using the lists furnished.
