

NPGS. He is engaged to a Southern belle and plans on a 27 June wedding date. Young, single Billy Daniels somehow tricked the Navy. He has transferred to the booming college town of Jackson, Mississippi, for recruiting duty. Mike Golda and his wife Gloria transferred in April to the Brooklyn Navy Yard where he will exchange his SWOS designator for that of an EDO. Skip Chesnut just returned from Iceland with his VP-9 P-3 DET. He's got another year in Moffett yet. Jeanine and Al Stewart are in Mare Island while Al's boat is in the yards.

Ron Long is flying helicopters in New River for the Marines. Andy Tamayo is now on ServRon SEVEN Staff out of Pearl Harbor. Mike McCarthy is flying H-3s in HS-8 and will be in "Connie." Billy Vasquez is a helo aircraft commander for H-46s and is flying in HC-11. Bobby Thompson and his wife Kate are just finishing up the F-14 Rag after a tour as an instructor in the training command. Steve Young and Larry Peruffo are P-3 jocks in Moffett (VP-50). Youngie is a tacco and Larry a pilot. That's a lot of news! Hope everyone has a great Summer and keep the news coming. Late note—Mark Clark is out of the Navy and is entering the priesthood.

Not too many tidings to forward to the news-hungry hordes these days, but here is a bit of the latest forwarded by Jim Hiser concerning The Fine Ninth. Says he, "Congratulations to Sue and Mike Budney, Libby and Randy Farley, and Betty Jane and Kevin Lynch on their weddings. Further, Mike Chapline is engaged to Carmel Gilliland, and the wedding should have taken place on 30 May at the Academy Chapel. Finally, Steve Johnston and Randy Loyer are engaged, but no date has yet been set for the wedding bells."

Thank you, Jim. And now let's all sit down and get a note off to the Class Corres. Some nine-hundred young ensigns and lieutenants must have something to say.
